Strengthening Our Youth to Prepare for Life

Post 558 Infantry Explorers Alumni, now cadets at USMA West Point,

Are you interested in exploring a possible military career option? Do you want to learn some of the aspects of the military such as discipline, teamwork, and becoming familiar with military field craft? Post 558 Infantry Explorers doctrine is based on U.S. Army traditions, history, customs and courtesies. Our mission is to introduce and prepare youths between the ages of 13 - 20 to a career in the military as an enlisted person or commissioned officer in the United States

Uniformed Services. With a follow-on purpose of being productive citizens to their communities and their country. It is considered a success when former Cadets, "Cadet Alumni," complete their Basic Initial Entry Training with the familiarity that allows them to focus on Leadership and Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) Skills vital to becoming competent and productive servicemembers. Post 558 emphasis includes military bearing and discipline, leadership and teamwork, uniforms, equipment and rank, drill and ceremonies, radio procedures, land navigation and compass reading, operations orders, field tactics and battle drills, field training exercises, combat first-aid, water confidence, marksmanship training and weapons safety, physical fitness, and much more. Our weekly meeting location is Joint Forces Training Base, Los Alamitos, Sundays between 1400-1700 hrs.

Post 558 Infantry Explorers is organized under the Learning for Life Exploring program, a subsidiary of Scouting America. We are sponsored by the California Military Department and American Legion Post #133, Huntington Beach, CA
